Hen Party Caterers

We work with a range of brilliant local caterers. They can come in to create special meals, organise a firepit feast in the garden, or create a fabulous menu and drop off all the ingredients for you to prepare yourselves.

You can even hire a private chef to come and take over all the cooking duties during your stay.

Activities

Zen hens

If you'd like to relax and chill before the big day, you could arrange for your own bespoke hen spa weekend. You can book onsite holistic therapies or pampering treatments, professional make-up sessions or even yoga classes for you and the girls.

You could also just sink into sofas, wander the grounds, enjoy a spot of al fresco dining, or just lie back and chat the day away in the sunshine.

If you fancy lying back in a hot tub to chill out at the end of the day, we can arrange for that too.

Adventure seeking hens

Adventure loving hens can try out caving, rock climbing, archery and just about anything else you can think of in the grounds and nearby!

If getting muddy is your thing, you can try an assault course. You could even unleash your inner Viking with a spot of Axe throwing.

Snow sport loving hens

We can rarely provide snow, but yes, you really can try out skiing and snowboarding on a dry slope just down the road.

Water loving hens

If your hen group loves water sports, why not try kayaking, canoeing or paddleboarding in the beautiful Somerset countryside. You could even hire a boat for the day.

Hen Party Booking Restrictions

If you and your hen group like to turn up the volume and dance until dawn, then sadly we're not for you.

We do have noise restrictions in place as we're situated in the heart of the village. We unfortunately can't allow amplified music, and outdoor noise needs to be kept at low volumes after 10 on weekdays, and after 11 on Fridays and Saturdays.

And as we're next door to a working farm, fireworks and Chinese lanterns are not permitted.
